

Jacksonville Young Professional Awards

Supporting, Honoring, & Developing Leaders

January 18, 2018 | The Salem Centre | 7:00 p.m.

Event Profile

The Jacksonville Junior Chamber of Commerce—more commonly known as the Jacksonville Jaycees—was formed in 1922 and has been an influential part of the young professional community in Jacksonville. To recognize the rising young leaders of Jacksonville, the Jaycees will be hosting the second annual Jacksonville Young Professional Awards.

These awards recognize local professionals between the ages of 18 and 40, who best exemplify the most aspirational attributes of our nation's emerging generation. This event will allow an opportunity for our winners to be nominated to the Junior Chamber International of Florida's Outstanding Young Floridians and the U.S. Junior Chamber International's Ten Outstanding Young American (or TOYA) awards.

Mr. Chris Ulmer, 2016 Jacksonville Young Professional Award recipient for Community Humanitarian Achievement went on to receive a TOYA and join the ranks of luminary past winners of TOYA awards including John F. Kennedy, William Jefferson Clinton, Elvis Presley, and Olympian Missy Franklin.

This year we will be honoring individuals in the following categories:

- Academic: Contribution to Children, World Peace and/or Human Rights Achievement
- Academic: Educator Achievement
- Business: Economic Achievement
- Business: Entrepreneurial Achievement
- Government Affairs: Political, Legal and/or Government Affairs Leadership
- Government: First Responder Leadership
- Community: Cultural Achievement
- Community: Environmental Achievement
- Community: Moral or Humanitarian Achievement
- Community: Voluntary Leadership
- Science/Technology: Development Achievement
- Jacksonville Influencer
